TCA is an investment adviser in accordance with Rule 13d-1(b)(1)(ii)(E) and TORIX is an investment company registered under Section 8 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (15 U.S.C. 80a-8).

TCA acts as an investment advisor to certain investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, including TORIX. TCA, by virtue of investment advisory agreements with these investment companies, has all investment and voting power over securities owned of record by these investment companies. However, despite their delegation of investment and voting power to TCA, these investment companies may be deemed to be the beneficial owner under Rule 13d-3 of the Act, of the securities they own of record because they have the right to acquire investment and voting power through termination of their investment advisory agreement with TCA. Thus, TCA has reported that it shares voting power and dispositive power over the securities owned of record by these investment companies, and TORIX has reported that it shares voting power and dispositive power over the securities owned of record by it. TCA also acts as an investment advisor to certain managed accounts. Under contractual agreements with these managed account clients, TCA has investment and voting power. TCA has reported that it shares investment and voting power over the securities held by these client managed accounts despite a delegation of investment and voting power to TCA because the clients have the right to acquire investment and voting power through termination of their agreements with TCA.
